Cramerton Police Make Arrest in Break-Ins

Cramerton Police responded to a report of a breaking and entering of a motor vehicle in the Lakewood Subdivision around 3:30 AM Sunday morning. A resident observed the suspect attempting to make entry into a neighbor's vehicle and called police.

Police arrived in the neighborhood and pursued the suspect before apprehending him at his residence. Zachary Michael Guy (21) of 609 Ridgeway Drive, Belmont was arrested and charged with five counts of breaking, entering, and larceny from motor vehicle; two counts of attempted breaking, entering, and larceny from motor vehicle; and one count of second degree burglary. Guy was held in the Gaston County Jail on a $50,000 secured bond. Additional charges are pending further investigation.

Cramerton Police have taken thirteen reports from residents of the Lakewood Community related to this incident. Currently, all of the reports have involved breaking and entering to vehicles or outside storage buildings. Persons with any additional information on this incident are asked to contact the Cramerton Police Department at 704.824.7964.
