Cramerton Police to Conduct Crime-Free Rental Property Workshop

Cramerton Police will conduct a crime-free rental property workshop for persons who own and rent property within the town limits. The information session will be held in the G.M. Michael Council Chambers inside the Cramerton Town Hall on Thursday, May 8, 2008 beginning at 7:00 P.M. The workshop is scheduled to last approximately one hour and a half.

Topics planned for the session include; maintaining crime-free rental property, code enforcement, policing rental properties, crime prevention through environmental design, legal issues of rental property, developing an effective lease agreement, and minimum housing.

All persons who own rental property or who are considering renting property within the Town of Cramerton are encouraged to attend the workshop. There is no cost associated with the session. Persons with questions are encouraged to contact the workshop coordinator, Officer C.J. Debbold at 704.824.7964 or by email at codeenforcement@cramertonpd.org.
